

Ever wonder what your smartwatch is telling you?

Project FEASible uses sensors like smartwatches and smartphones to identify factors that may be related to women's risk for metabolic and cardiovascular disease.

Interested in joining the project?

Contact us by scanning the QR code,
calling or texting us to learn more!

Darla Castelli (512) 232-7635

or

Tania Ramos Santiago (512) 471-
7926

To be eligible for the study you must be:

- A woman between the ages of 18-40
- Interested in using a smartwatch & other sensing devices
- Living in Central Texas
- Willing to work with us for one month
- Participants are compensated for their time
- This study is approved by the University of Texas IRB