Psychology Graduate Student Diversity Committee presents

Psychology Graduate School Panel

Thursday, April 24th 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Seay Building, Room 4.244 (SEA 4.244)

We will be discussing:
- Things to consider when deciding if grad school is right for you
- How to become a competitive applicant and get research experience
- Steps in applying and deciding on schools
- What graduate school in psychology is really like
- And more!

Graduate students from the following areas in psychology will answer questions and talk about their experiences:

Clinical, Social and Personality, Developmental, Evolutionary, and Cognitive Neuroscience
